

Day of Prayer & Hope, March 27

6 am – Praying over healthcare workers and caregivers everywhere
7 am – Praying over our personal closeness to the Lord, prayer for supernatural peace from God and to be a joyful light for Jesus!
8 am – Praying over churches and pastors
9 - 9:30 am – Praying over people in high-risk categories
10 am – MINISTRY PROGRAMS
11:30 - 12 noon – Praying over family relationships during this unique time
12 noon – Praying over being a peaceful, hopeful, loving light for Christ in the midst of this fear. (This is the time for Christians to shine!)
1 pm – Praying over first responders, police, firefighters, military and medical personnel
2 pm – Praying over an explosion of revival, people coming to Christ in this!
3 pm – Praying over those recovering from coronavirus around the world, and for New York City especially where half of the U.S. coronavirus has been.
4 pm – Praying over community leaders and influencers at all levels
5 pm – Praying for community connections and closeness through this
6 pm – Praying over the elderly, our grandparents and parents